

How You Get Your Hands on One Is Strictly Up to You.

Frankly, we hope that you'll first call one of our authorized dealers who've made Auto Crane® their preferred choice.

Auto Crane dealers will help you get your hands on our service cranes, crane bodies, mechanics trucks and certified parts so you're ready for the heavy lifting your work day demands. They'll also stand behind every one of our products with the kind of muscle you expect—knowledge, expertise, and service that's second to none.

With a legacy of superior quality and die-hard performance for more than 50 years, Auto Crane knows what it takes to win our customers' confidence, generation after generation. So it's no surprise that when it comes to Auto Crane and the dealers who sell us exclusively, there really is no competition. Although we do enjoy the idea of being fought over.
